

WESTERN GUN WORKS

Chicago, IL

This box is probably an import that was made up for some gun dealer in the Chicago, Illinois area. This may have been Sears Roebuck during the period when they were battling with Winchester for selling their guns and ammunition below the established fair trade prices. No other information is known about this box at this time.

S-1 .22 SHORT. Orange label with black printing. Blue box with black patterned printing. One-piece box with slide through tray. Contents are unknown .

Images from the Rich Rains collection